

WHRO's PBS KIDS Writers Contest Rules

WHRO's PBS KIDS Writers Contest begins January 2023. The deadline for entries is Friday, March 24th, 2023.

In addition to the original contest, we will present the Batten Environmental Education Award to winning stories with an Environmental theme or topic. (Environmental stories are optional)

Some suggested topics taken from K-5 Science SOL's in Environmental Literacy include: natural resources, recycling, conservation, habitat, land, air, water, animals, earth, plants, forest, rocks, fossils, weather, and energy sources, just to name a few.

Eligibility & Entry Guidelines

- Entrants must be in K-5 grades.
- Children of employees of PBS, PBS stations or their affiliates, sales representatives, subsidiaries or parent companies, advertising/sales promotion agencies, and judges are not eligible.
- To be eligible, an entrant must be a legal resident of the United States. Sponsor reserves the right to disqualify ineligible entries; such entries will not be returned.
- Only one entry per person accepted. All subsequent entries will be disqualified.
- Only single author stories qualify (no co-authored stories).
- Stories can be fact or fiction, and prose or poetry.
- Any failure to adhere to these Contest Rules may result in disqualification from the contest.
- No purchase is necessary.

Word Count (No Exceptions)

- Stories word count range: Grades K-1 50-200 words; Grades 2-3 100-350 words; Grades 4-5 200-450 words.
- The word count includes "a", "an", and "the", but not the words on non-story pages such as the title page or those that enhance the illustrations.
- Text must be printed, written legibly, or typed.
- Children who cannot write may have parents/teachers dictate their story to be printed, written legibly or typed.
- Text may be integrated into the illustration pages or on separate pages.
